

CRYP PRIVACY POLICY

The Cheyenne River Youth Project (CRYP) respects your privacy. Because CRYP gathers certain types of information from and about our users, we feel you should fully understand our policy and the terms and conditions surrounding the capture and use of that information. This privacy statement discloses what information we gather and how we use it. Information collected and gathered by CRYP is never sold or rented to any third party. Under no circumstances does CRYP divulge any information about an individual user to a third party.

USE OF INFORMATION

Cookies and Other Persistent Identifiers

CRYP or third parties we contract with may use persistent identifiers such as cookies, embedded scripts, web beacons, pixel tags, log files, or similar technologies to collect certain information about visitors to our site and interactions with our online and mobile sponsorship information or advertisements.

For example, we may automatically collect certain non-personal information from you, including but not limited to your browser type, device type, geographical location, operating system, unique device identifier of any of your computer(s) or device(s) that are used to access the site, software version, Internet Protocol ("IP") address, phone model, phone operating system, and the domain name from which you accessed the site. We also may collect information about your use of the site, including the date and time you visit the site, the areas or pages of the site that you visit, the amount of time you spend viewing or using the site, the number of times you return to the site, other click-stream or site usage data, emails that you open, forward or click-through to our site, advertising that you click on, and other sites that you may visit.

You can still use CRYP's websites if you have set your browser to reject cookies or tracking identifiers, but it may prevent you from viewing or accessing some of the features of our sites.

CRYP uses information voluntarily given by users to prepare future content based on user interests and to enhance the users' experiences with CRYP's sites. CRYP may also use information that users voluntarily provide to send out electronic newsletters and to enable users to participate in polls, surveys, message boards, and forums. Website visits generate certain information that is automatically stored in log files, including Internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, Internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp and clickstream data. CRYP may also store information collected through cookies, log files and other technologies to create a "profile" of your preferences. We use this information, which in itself does not identify individual users, to analyze trends, to administer the site, to track users' movements around the site and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole. CRYP may share aggregated demographic information with its partners. This information does not identify individual users. CRYP does not link aggregate user data with personally identifiable information in these cases.

SECURITY

CRYP operates secure data networks protected by firewall and password protection systems that are at least industry standard. CRYP's security and privacy policies are periodically reviewed and enhanced as necessary. Only authorized individuals have access to the information provided by CRYP affiliates. The security of your sensitive personal information is important to us. Such information provided in connection with purchases or donations is encrypted end-to-end with industry-standard 128-bit Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology and digital certificates.

OPT-OUT POLICY AND REMOVAL OF PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION

CRYP gives users practical options to remove themselves from CRYP mailing lists and from participation in certain interactive areas of CRYP's websites. You may correct, update or deactivate your personally identifiable information by e-mailing us at julie.cryp@gmail.com or by contacting us by telephone or postal mail at the contact information listed below.

COMMENTING POLICY

In keeping with our mission to provide a nonpartisan venue for dealing with and discussing critical issues, The Cheyenne River Youth Project welcomes comments on our website and across its other social media and online platforms. We welcome strong opinions and comments. The opinions expressed in these comments are not necessarily those of the Cheyenne River Youth Project. Comments that CRYP deems to include profanity, hate speech, personal attacks, or libelous, defamatory, discriminatory, obscene, pornographic, abusive or otherwise illegal (including violations of copyright or trademark laws) or unacceptable material may be removed. We reserve the right to block or remove the posting privileges of commenters who violate these standards of decorum at any time.

CHILDREN

Consistent with the Federal Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 (COPPA), we will never knowingly request personally identifiable information from anyone under the age of 13 without requesting parental consent.

LEGAL DISCLAIMER

CRYP reserves the right to disclose your personally identifiable information as required by law and when it believes that disclosure is necessary to protect CRYP's rights and/or to comply with a judicial proceeding, court order or legal process. CRYP reserves the right to modify this privacy statement at any time. If CRYP makes material changes to this policy, we will notify you here, by email, or by means of a notice on CRYP's home page.
